Element AVITI™ System Programs for Reagent Rental and Leasing

Flexible and affordable purchasing options for labs of all sizes and budgets

The Element AVITI System offers an unrivaled combination of performance, cost, and flexibility. Whether you are looking to insource sequencing capability with a first-time purchase or increase your operational efficiency by expanding an existing fleet, reagent rental and leasing programs put the AVITI System within reach.

Structure a Reagent Rental Package That Meets Your Budget

1 Option 1: No down payment

Bring an AVITI System into your lab with no down payment.

- Pricing includes an interest rate
- Terms are one, two, or three years
- Requires a service contract that covers the full term

2 Option 2: Lower monthly commitment

Apply all the benefits of option 1 and add a down payment that lowers the monthly commitment.

- Minimum down payment
- Maximum term of two years
- Requires a service contract that covers the full term

3 Option 3: Bridge to budget

Leverage the reagent rental program until funding for an outright purchase becomes available.

- Start at option 1 with no down payment
- Make a payment and switch to option 2 when funds are available

Enjoy All the Benefits of the AVITI System

Reagent rental includes all the benefits of the AVITI System without the upfront financial commitment.

Install	Sequence	Service	Own
Element delivers, installs, and verifies the system at your site.	Pay for the instrument with monthly reagent purchases.	A service contract maintains peak performance and minimizes downtime.	At the end of the reagent rental term, you own the instrument outright.

Enjoy All the Benefits of the AVITI System

The commitment for a one-, two-, or three-year reagent rental with no down payment scales the price of sequencing kits to suit your budget needs: pay more per kit and pay off the instrument faster or enjoy a longer rental period with lower kit prices. At the end of the program, you own the instrument outright and purchase reagents at the regular prices.

Commitment	Own	One-Year Reagent Rental	Two-Year Reagent Rental	Three-Year Reagent Rental
Number of kits per quarter	No obligation	78	65	31

Talk to Us about Our Versatile Option 2

Our mission is to empower labs of all sizes and budgets with affordable, timely access to high-quality DNA sequencing. Adding a down payment to the reagent rental program gives us additional flexibility to develop a solution that puts an AVITI System on your benchtop today. Let's start a dialog about how we can meet your needs.

Leasing Program

ElemBio Capital Solutions™ is a partnership between Element Biosciences and DLL that offers another solution for purchasing an AVITI System through easy financing. Simple qualification, a transparent process, and flexible terms accelerate the purchase of a new system or the expansion of current operations.
